DIY STORYTIME

THEME: BODY PARTS

Here are some ideas and activities to try this week with your child. These five practices are designed to help your child develop literacy skills, engage your child, and enhance the bonds between you.

SING
Head, Shoulders, Knees, and Toes Song
Head, shoulders, knees, and toes,
Knees and toes.
Head, shoulders, knees, and toes,
Knees and toes.
Eyes, and ears, and mouth, and nose.
Head, shoulders, knees, and toes ,
Knees and toes.

(Repeat with variations like as fast as possible, as quietly as possible, in a funny voice, etc.)

WRITE
Trace your hand and your child’s hand and cut both out. How similar or different are they?

PLAY
Play a game of Simon Says! Click here if you’d like to play it with Miss Ashley virtually.

Play a game of Body Parts Freeze Dance!
Take turns picking a body part. When the music plays you wiggle or dance using only that body part. When the music stops everyone freezes by standing still. Choose a new body part to move during each round of freeze dance.

TALK
Talk about different body parts. What does each one do? Which ones allows you to move? Which body part is your favorite?
